Announcements JANUARY 14, 2007

CDOBC NEWS

Ladies Bible Study: "Our One and Only" - is He yours?

Join in this discussion from I Kings 18:16-39 as you decide. Come join us as we study the Ten Commandments led by Beth Kolbuss on Tuesday 9:45-11:00 AM. For more information call Louise Brandt at 818-3014 or the church office at 297-3900.

Secret Grandparents & Children: Several children have expressed a desire to write their Secret Grandparents a note. If your child would like to do that, please bring the note to the church office and place it in the Children's Ministry box for distribution. This is very encouraging to everyone involved!

Music Ministry The adult choir has resumed rehearsals on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 PM. If you enjoy singing, please join us. Pastor Juan would especially like to encourage "a few good men" to join the choir and strengthen the tenor and bass sections. Also, if you are interested in sharing your skill with a musical instrument, give Pastor Juan a call at 297-3900. The choir will begin working on the Easter music in February.

Gordiejew Small Group Starts Up Are you interested in joining a small group? Do you want more fellowship with others? There will be an initial meeting on Thursday, Feb. 1st, at 7:00 PM. Call Beth or Joel at 825-2660 for information Construction Pictures: Check the website for ongoing pictures of the construction. Go to our website at www.cdobaptist.org and click on "Photo Gallery" and then on "Construction".

Important Construction Update: Starting February 5th, the ceilings of the education wing and nursery area are scheduled to come down. This means that the office will be closed for that week. It is our plan to have calls forwarded. We will need help to prepare for this on Sunday February 4 and help returning to "normal" on Friday & Saturday of that same week. We need to clear the floor space to make it easy for the workers. If you have any questions, please call the church office at 297-3900.

Truth and Training clubbers: It's time to start your engines! The Awana Grand Prix is Saturday, March 3rd, at 9:00 am. Car kit distribution began January 10th, and will continue this Wednesday during AWANA. Registration form and entrance fee of $5 is required to receive your car kit. Please call Darrell or Lisa Horner, 575-1709 if you have any questions or comments.
